Welcome to

Ocean City

here's something about Ocean City, N.J.

Anticipation builds as you get closer. Asphalt and shopping malls give way to an expanse of green as you pass through the coastal forest. The air gets cooler on a fresh sea breeze and backseat fidgeting is suspended when the kids realize you're on final approach.

Then, you come around a curve and your eyes land on jewels of sunlight dancing on the bay. Fishing boats bob on the waves as Jet-Skis slalom between them. In the distance, the Ferris wheel makes its endless journey. Excitement rushes through the car. You're only minutes from your destination – fun and sun in America's Greatest Family Resort.

The sea, the sand, the Boardwalk – wide, handsome avenues lined with pretty homes, unique shops, restaurants and comfortable hotels. It's the Jersey Shore's charming, family-friendly, fun vacation paradise.

You've arrived.

The Beach

Ocean City's eight miles of white-sand beaches are a favorite for enjoying time in the sun and surf. Beach tags are required to use the beach in-season and swimming is permitted only at guarded beaches. See more in the Beach section.

Alcoholic beverages

Founded by Methodists as a seaside religious retreat, one legacy of that history is Ocean City's status as a "dry" town. Alcohol is not sold on the island and alcohol consumption is prohibited in all public places, including the beach. Package goods stores are located within a short distance of the island.

Parking

Metered parking is available throughout the middle of town and free on-street parking is available in other areas of the city. The city operates parking lots on 5th, 8th and 9th Streets and on Moorlyn Terrace. Private parking lots are also available.

Bicycling

The beauty of Ocean City really shines when you tour the island by bicycle. A bike path runs through the center of town, on Haven Avenue between 9th and 34th Streets. Additional shared-use bike lanes and bike-friendly roads run throughout town.

Bikes are also allowed on the Boardwalk, 5 a.m. to noon, June 1 to Indian Summer Weekend (Columbus Day Weekend) and all day during the remainder of the year.

Helmets are required in New Jersey for all riders under 17 and recommended for everyone. Bicyclists should ride with traffic and obey all posted signs and signals. Ocean City has many bicycle and surrey rental companies. Visit bikeocnj.org to learn more.

Furry friends

Dogs on a leash are allowed on the beach October 1 to April 30. Guide dogs are allowed on the beach at any time. Fido has an additional place to play at Ocean City's Dog Park, 45th St. & Haven Ave. The park is open dawn to dusk and a Paw Pass is required for entry. Visit the dog park website to learn more, oceancitydogpark.org.

Keeping it clean

To keep Ocean City beautiful and enjoyable for all, please put trash in a proper receptacle. Ocean City recycles: plastic, glass, aluminum and paper should be separated from regular trash.

Emergencies

The 911 system is in place for summoning police, fire or rescue by phone. Tune your radio to 1620 AM for updates from Ocean City's Office of Emergency Management during any public emergency, including severe weather. Beaches

Ocean City's award-winning white sand beach stretches nearly eight miles from the Great Egg Harbor Inlet to the north and south to Corson's Inlet State Park. Clean, expansive and beautiful – it's no wonder the Travel Channel named Ocean City's beach #1 in the region. That puts Ocean City in the illustrious company of places like Mauna Kea, Hawaii; Horseshoe Bay, Bermuda and Barcelona, Spain.

Each region has its own unique character – the quiet, picturesque beaches of the Gardens District in the north; the buzz beside the Boardwalk; rolling dunes framing majestic homes in the south end; and the quiet beauty of Corson's Inlet, where rare seabirds nest and anglers work the surf overlooking Strathmere and Sea Isle City.

Depending on where you plant your umbrella, you can choose a spot within walking distance to comfort stations, activities and concessions – or a more secluded location where you can savor the roll of the waves and squawk of seagulls without distraction. Enjoy the peaceful relaxation!

Around town

the neighborhoods

First-time visitors to Ocean City, N.J. are struck by the incredible diversity of its neighborhoods. Every corner of town is vibrant with its own look and feel – the architecture, activity and natural backdrop combining into a special vibe.

With its white sand beaches, Boardwalk bustle, quaint shopping, charming, tree-lined streets and quiet fishing spots, each Ocean City neighborhood offers its own brand of sights, sounds and diversions.

By car, by foot or by bike – around every turn lies another landscape to explore and a new treasure to discover.

The Boardwalk

The mind-boggling variety of attractions on Ocean City's Boardwalk has made it a family vacation favorite since the first planks were nailed down back in the 1880s.

The boards have been moved around and rebuilt almost continuously since those early days. Stretching from 1st to 23rd Street, today's Boardwalk is two and a half miles of clean, well-maintained attractions for fun-lovers of every age – with amusement rides, arcades, miniature golf, traditional seaside snacks, casual dining and eclectic shopping.

Whether you're eating your way from one end to the other or taking a brisk walk to burn off the calories, the Boardwalk is also Ocean City's entertainment central. In the summer months, you'll encounter live music both on the boards and at the Music Pier, magicians, clowns and other strolling entertainers, art shows, parades (for people and pets) – even karaoke competitions. See the Events Calendar to learn more.

South of 14th Street, the Boardwalk takes on markedly different ambience. The boards bisect a wide dune field and the majestic quiet of some of the city's most beautiful backyard gardens. It's a stunning place to stroll.

The Boardwalk remains a spot to see and be seen – a scenic platform where both vacationers and locals stroll, jog, bike, shop, snack and play while taking in the salt air and breathtaking beauty of Ocean City's blue sea and sky.

Downtown

With more than 100 shops and restaurants open year-round on Asbury Avenue between 6th and 11th Streets, Ocean City's business and retail district a uniquely American main-street community.

In an era with so many Main Streets abandoned in the shadow of the big-box mall, Ocean City's business district remains a destination. It's a manicured and pedestrian-friendly neighborhood with a collection of shops and one-of-a-kind boutiques – each with a unique personality.

Like the Boardwalk, Asbury Avenue has its own schedule of special events and entertainment, including the famous spring and fall Block Parties, live music, kids' activities and a parade of parades – including the one-of-a-kind Doo Dah Parade, celebrating the end of tax season each April. See the Events Calendar to learn more.

The Bay and Marina District

Ocean City's sugar-sand ocean beaches tell only half the story. On the western coast, a system of bays, lagoons and estuaries separate our barrier island from the mainland. It's a landscape of calm waters, wildlife and expanses of color framed by stately dock-front homes, boaters, water skiers, fishermen and picture-postcard sunsets.

It's where you can grab a bite, rent a Jet-Ski, climb aboard a party boat for some deep-sea fishing, take a pleasure cruise around the island or find just the right piece of gear you need for a fishing excursion or sailing adventure. And there are plenty of spots to drop a fishhook or crab line.

In the middle of town, the bay and lagoons become the site of an Ocean City summer tradition, the festive celebration of Night in Venice, one of the world's largest boat parades.

Here, too, you'll find the Bayside Center, a historic home converted into a museum and institute of study devoted to the back bays. See the Stuff to Do section for more information.

North End

Known as The Gardens, the neighborhoods of Ocean City's northern tip are quiet and beautiful, with curving streets lined with handsome homes in a diversity of architectural styles.

Overlooking Great Egg Harbor Inlet, with dramatic views of Atlantic City, the beaches here are wide and peaceful. Traffic is lighter in this part of town, making it a pleasant place to hike or bike in search of some solitude, a bite to eat, a new piece of beach gear or a vantage point to watch the surfers dancing on the waves.

South End

Largely residential, Ocean City's south end also has its share of nifty shops and cafés. Wide avenues make it a favorite for bicyclists – and nature lovers flock south on their way to Corson's Inlet State Park, a picturesque area of unspoiled, undeveloped beach and dunes on the island's southern tip. See the Stuff to Do section for more.

Boating/Watersports

With miles of both ocean and bay coastline, there's no shortage of ways to have fun in and on the waters surrounding Ocean City. With ever-changing conditions of temperature, light and waves – the challenges and rewards are many for surfers, anglers, boaters, swimmers and other aquatic fun seekers.

Getting your bearings

The Atlantic faces the eastern coast of the island. On the western side, the Intracoastal Waterway winds its way through the area's many creeks, lagoons and bay coves.

To download marine charts of the area online, visit nauticalcharts.noaa.gov.

Small craft

The back bays and creeks offer countless opportunities for navigating flat, placid waters by water ski, tube, kayak, small boat or personal watercraft. The rolling surf on the ocean side offers more of a challenge for the adventurous. A variety of craft is available for rental throughout the city.

Charter boats

Larger fishing vessels also work the waters around Ocean City. With a group charter or party boat, hugging the coast or working the ridges and canyons farther out – the experienced and knowledgeable captain and crew will help you land the big one.

Pleasure cruising

Sightseeing by water is another way to take in the natural beauty of the New Jersey seashore around Ocean City. Several tour operators serve the island.

Sailing

Here's your chance to learn the ropes or better your skills putting wind to canvas. Rentals and lessons and sailing camps are available for every level of sailor, adults and kids.

Baycats offers sailboat and kayak rentals, guided kayak tours, lessons and sailing camps. See ad on page 30 or visit the website at baycats.com. Sailing camps are also operated through the Ocean City Sailing Foundation, ocsailingfoundation.org.

Parasailing

Towed by motorboat, a tethered parachute puts you on an airborne perch for an incredible birds-eye view of the island and its surroundings. It's a ride you won't soon forget.

Surfing

When the surf's up, surfers flock to the clean, white-sand beaches to put their skills to the test. That's a board meeting, Ocean City style. Surfing is permitted at Waverly Boulevard and at 7th and 16th Streets. (See the Beach section for details.) Check the local surf shops for wave reports, board rentals and lessons, too.

Other watercraft

The fresh breeze and clean waters surrounding Ocean City also combine to generate excellent conditions for windsurfing and kitesurfing.

Safety first

Wearing a USCG-approved personal flotation device is required for both operators and passengers in the waters off the New Jersey coast.

Boat launches

Two boat ramps serve the island. The municipal boat ramp is located on the bay at Tennessee Avenue between 22nd and 23rd Streets. There you can also pick up supplies, bait, ice, refreshments and ice cream. The ramp is in operation April 1 to October 31. Launch fees are $10 daily or $100 for the season • (609) 525-9289

At the island's southern tip, the state operates a boat launch at Corson's Inlet State Park. The ramp is in operation year-round. Fees are charged Memorial Day to Labor Day, $10 daily or $55 for the season. • (609) 861-2404

Fishing

Land the big one

Something fishy is going on here. In fact a lot fishy is going on here! Ocean City is in prime position for some of the most thrilling and challenging sportfishing in the East – plus there are plenty of spots for more casual anglers to drop a line and try their luck. From bluefish to weakfish and lots in between, the action goes virtually year-round.

Know the rules

You do not need a license to fish the saltwater surrounding Ocean City, but fishing is subject to quotas, size limits and other regulations. Licenses are required for harvesting clams and other shellfish. You'll find all the information you need in the New Jersey Fish and Wildlife Digest, available at local bait shops and tackle dealers. Online, learn more at nj.gov/dep/fgw.

Surf fishing is allowed:

- Anytime on unguarded beaches
- Anytime Corson's Inlet State Park on the island's southern tip
- On guarded beaches before and after life-guards are on duty

Fun close to shore

Anglers working the surf land bluefish, flounder, sea bass, tautog (blackfish), kingfish, shark and the famous striped bass (rockfish). Fisherman flock to the beach during the "blitz," when stripers pass through by the thousand, following schools of bunker. Spring and autumn bluefish runs are equally dramatic, as the feeding reaches frenzy proportions.

In the bays and creeks, weakfish (sea trout) are a favorite quarry, along with sea bass, "snapper" blues, croaker and flounder. Just north of town, parts of the old Longport bridge has been converted to a fishing pier. And south of town the Ocean Drive/Rush Chatten bridge was designed specially to accommodate anglers.

The tasty blueclaw crab is easy to catch with line or trap in the backbays and creeks. Kids love outsmarting the feisty crustaceans. Ask the bait shop for a rundown on size limits.

Bigger fish, bigger action offshore

New Jersey's offshore waters are world famous for spine-tingling sportfishing action. Above the ridges, canyons, wrecks and reefs, anglers take prize-winning tuna, mahi (dorado), blue and white marlin, shark, wahoo and more. West of the county, the vast Delaware Bay yields more varieties, including drumfish, sheepshead, channel catfish and more.

Ask the experts

To learn what's running and which baits and lures are doing the trick, just ask at any of Ocean City's fishing docks and tackle shops. News travels fast around here – especially when fish stories are the topic.

Outdoor & Nature

The New Jersey seashore is an absolute paradise for nature lovers. If you keep your eyes open, just walking on the beach is an opportunity to spy all kinds of sea life, unique beach flora and birds, both native and visiting. In summer, schools of dolphin work the surf as they follow their food up and down the beach. Beyond the beach, Ocean City offers several unique vantage points for absorbing the beauty of the outdoors.

Stainton Wildlife Refuge

On Bay Avenue between 23rd and 30th Streets, 16 acres of protected dune and marsh is a haven for native and migrating birds. An elevated observation platform gives birdwatchers a birds-eye view. Park at the airport, 26th and Bay.

The Bayside Center

A visit to the Bayside Center at 520 Bay Ave. delivers an in-depth look at Ocean City's natural habitat. On nearly two acres of bayfront, this converted historic home is a busy educational institute. Includes the lifeguard museum, ship models and tanks of live local sea creatures, plus a schedule of programs and summer camps. The public dock is open year round and makes a terrific spot to watch the sun set over Great Egg Harbor Bay – or the annual Night in Venice boat parade. • (609) 525-9244 summer; (609) 525-9301, winter

Corson's Inlet State Park

The southern tip of our island is a quiet, undeveloped state park with acres of wild dunes, a beautiful cove lagoon and beachfront access. At Corson's Inlet State Park, the majesty of the seashore has been preserved as it was centuries ago.

To fully appreciate this treasure of nature, guided walking tours are offered Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays in July and August. You can also take a guided beach walk on the north end. See the Events Section for details.

Inn-to-Inn Trolley Tour

Ocean City is home to some of the Jersey Shore's most beautiful and charming bed & breakfasts and inns. A fun way to explore them is on the Ocean City Regional Chamber of Commerce Inn-to-Inn Trolley Tour, offered in July and August. Different inns are featured each Thursday, 2 to 4 p.m., with the innkeepers as tour guides. Catch the trolley at 7th St. & Central Ave.

Historic Walking Tour

The Historic District comprises the oldest part town, the blocks surrounding the Tabernacle at 6th St. & Asbury Ave. Tree-lined streets of quaint Victorian homes, inns and restaurants await exploring. For a walking tour map of the area, visit the Historic Museum at 1735 Simpson Ave. or online at ocnjmuseum.org.

Day Trips

Ocean City is centrally located among a treasure trove of destinations and activities at the southern Jersey Shore, each a short car ride away.

Casino excitement

The glam and glitter of Atlantic City's casino resort scene is north by about 30 minutes. There's always action at the tables and in the city's many theaters and showrooms.

Aquarium at Gardner's Basin

On Atlantic City's northern end, the Atlantic City Aquarium is a fun family destination at Gardner's Basin – also home to shops, restaurants, boat rides and beautiful views of the sea and harbor. 800 N. New Hampshire Ave. • (609) 348-2880 or acaquarium.com

Lighthouses

Four historic lighthouses are within reach of Ocean City: Absecon Light is New Jersey's tallest, in northern Atlantic City. The Hereford Inlet light stands in stunning English-style gardens in North Wildwood. Cape May Lighthouse at Cape May Point rises above a park and migratory bird flyway. And the East Point Light near Heislerville is a unique example of a 19th century river light. • njlhs.org

Somers Mansion Historic Site

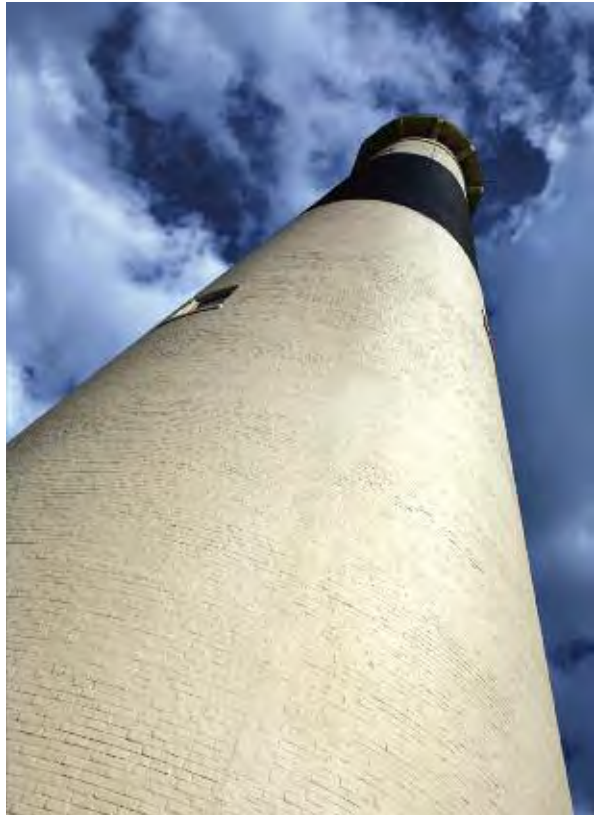

The home of one of America's first naval heroes, Richard Somers' mansion in his namesake Somers Point offers a taste of the life of an 18th century gentleman, with guided tours and preserved artifacts. 1000 Shore Rd. • (609) 927-2900 or somers-pointhistory.org

Culture &

the Arts

The peaceful atmosphere, the stunningly beautiful landscapes, the majesty of the sea ... all the elements come together to make Ocean City an incubator for year-round blossoming of arts and culture. Local and visiting writers, artists and musicians share their talents here – with a busy Arts Center, Museum and library anchoring the cultural community.

Cultural HQ at 17th & Simpson

Ocean City's state-of-the-art Cultural Community Center at 1735 Simpson Ave. houses the Free Public Library, the Ocean City Arts Center and the Historic Museum, plus the Aquatic and Fitness Center.

Much more than books

Ocean City's library is simply one of the best at the shore, with a large selection of books, movies, reference materials, online access and a staff of friendly information experts. The library also hosts events, book clubs, lectures and other offerings for both adults and kids, year round. Vacation visitors welcome. • (609) 399-2434 or oceancitylibrary.org

A lot has happened on our island since the founders mapped out their seaside spiritual retreat on "Peck's Beach" back in 1879. The whole panoply of decades is documented at the Historical Museum. A comprehensive collection of artifacts and documents is handsomely displayed and interpreted by knowledgeable guides. Special events are held throughout the year. • (609) 399-1801 or ocnjmuseum.org

of Ocean City

hat are you in the mood for? Philly cheesesteaks or thin-crust pizza?

Taylor pork roll, fresh-cut fries or an overstuffed hoagie? Seafood or pasta with the family? Or an elegant gourmet meal, savored by candlelight from white linen?

It's all here. Ocean City's neighborhoods are chocked with eateries of every style. With so many culinary offerings to explore, you'll never go hungry here.

Ocean City remains a "dry" town, a legacy of its founding as a religious retreat. Of course, for adults 21 and older, you can enjoy libations in the privacy of your home or room – you just have to plan ahead. Package goods stores are located within five minutes of city limits.

Boardwalk

The Boardwalk has a lot of everything – all within view of the postcard backdrop of the rolling surf. For something quick: hand-thrown pizza, pork roll sandwiches, steaks, burgers, dogs or sausage. Sit down for breakfast by the beach or an affordable family meal, a gourmet hamburger, pasta, lighter salads or seafood. The choices are mind-boggling. And few places on earth have so many ways to satisfy the sweet tooth, with ice cream, fruit smoothies, funnel cakes, water ice, handmade candy, donuts and caramel popcorn. You can go back on your diet tomorrow, right?

Downtown

The menu of menu choices is impressive on Asbury Avenue between 6th and 11th streets and in the surrounding blocks. A walk down the Avenue unearths dozens of culinary treasures, from gourmet to get-it-and-go, pizza, subs, sweets and coffee.

By the bay

On the western bayshore, you'll find full breakfast by the picturesque docks of the bay, seafood, family dining – plus ice cream and other sweet treats. There's lots of free parking and it's a picturesque place to stroll or take a bike ride in pursuit of a memorable meal.

North End/South End

More variety awaits in the quiet neighborhoods of the South and North Ends. Breakfast places and cafes, subs, steaks, burgers, seafood, ethnic and sweets – some served al fresco in the open air.

Retail

therapy

Like sand, sea and surf, no trip to Ocean City is complete without a little retail therapy.

Whether you're a dyed-in-the-wool shopaholic or just enjoy browsing for the out-of-the-ordinary, Ocean City's shops and boutiques satisfy any craving – from apparel to fine art, crafts, jewelry, furnishings, antiques, souvenirs, gifts and handmade curiosities.

Many of Ocean City's stores are one-of-a-kind, with very specialized inventory. And throughout town, shopkeepers deliver that special brand of friendly, one-on-one service that has become something of a lost art.

Downtown

With over 100 shops and restaurants packed in just a few blocks, Asbury Avenue between 6th and 11th Streets and the side streets are home to shopping that's interesting and fun. It's a world you can easily get lost in (willingly of course.) Many downtown boutiques and stores are open year round.

Boardwalk

We all know the Boardwalk as an eater's paradise. Turns out it's a shopper's dream, too. Tucked in between the arcades, miniature golf, rides and cafes are dozens of shops catering to shoppers of every age and interest. Little is left out, from surfboards, flip-flops and beach gear to souvenirs, T-shirts, books, music, gourmet food, logo apparel, gifts and souvenirs – plus handmade delights alongside treasures imported from around the world.

Bayfront

On the bay side, take a stroll along the bay for nautical gear, gifts and fishing tackle along with places to grab a snack, meal, coffee or something sweet.

North end/South end

The northern and southern neighborhoods have their own unique blend of shops, cafes, bakeries and eateries lining wide avenues and quiet, tree-line streets. Shopping by bicycle is a favorite way to pass the time here.

History

of Ocean City

Ocean City's history is a rich tapestry of events stretching back to the late 19th century.

Years before the first European settlers dubbed it "Peck's Beach," the island was a summer fishing camp for native Leni-Lenape people and also served as a grazing land for cattle driven from the mainland. The barrier island of dunes, meadows, beach and cedar swamps likely took its first name from John Peck, who used the island as a staging area for his shore-based whaling operation.

Original ownership of the land is traced to the family of Richard Somers, one of America's first naval heroes. Only an intrepid few made their homes here, as getting on and off the island was exclusively by water.

The seeds of a future city were sown in 1879, when four Methodist ministers saw in Peck's Beach the ideal place to establish a Christian retreat and camp meeting. Ezra B. Lake, James Lake, S. Wesley Lake and William Burrell coined the name "Ocean City," laid out a street grid, built utilities and sold lots for cottages, hotels and businesses.

The first building of what would become the Tabernacle was finished in 1881, along with the island's first school. The first bridge went up in 1883 and the railroad soon followed, bringing both the devout in search of religious retreat and vacationers seeking solace from the noise and grime of the city.

Since those early days, Ocean City has transformed itself into "America's Greatest Family Resort," a top-rated vacation destination. The Tabernacle is still a dynamic place for praise and worship. The legacy of the founders also remains in the absence of liquor sales within the city limits. Its status as a "dry" town is one important reason Ocean City has become a family favorite.

To learn more, visit the Historic Museum at 17th St. & Simpson Ave. The entire timeline is cataloged and preserved there: the growth of the early city and Boardwalk, the 1901 wreck of the four-masted Sindia, the 1927 fire and the battle over "Blue Laws" – Ocean City has remained a sought-after vacation destination through all the economic and political changes Americans have seen over the past 130 years.
